P.C.

. Heard. Writ Petition No.3971 of 2007 was disposed off on 25/5/2007 by directing the SDO to decide the application for stay filed in the appeal challenging the order passed by the Tahsildar on 30/4/2007 within a period of four weeks and the stay granted earlier was ordered to be continued for a further period of four weeks and this period of four weeks expired on 22nd June 2007.

. In this application it is stated that the stay application has not yet been decided by the SDO and, therefore, the period of stay of four weeks is required to be extended further. As per the learned counsel for the respondent no.1, the SDO had issued notice on 19/6/2007 fixing the hearing of the application on 21/6/2007 and by subsequent notice dated 21/6/2007 the stay application was to be heard on 25/6/2007. However, it came to be adjourned to 28/6/2007.

. Hence this Civil Application is disposed off by directing that the stay granted earlier will be continued for a further period of two weeks.

. The learned AGP to communicate this order to the SDO forthwith.
